The works of legendary design duo Charles and Ray Eames and two artists who learned from them, their daughter Lucia and granddaughter Llisa, are explored, with emphasis on the remarkable results that are achieved by keeping experimentation and play as part of the creative process.

Opening Reception
January 24, 2015, 4-7pm

Eames and the Maker Tradition:
A Panel Discussion
February 4, 6:30-8:00 with Q&A

Valentines at PAC:
Family Day
February 7, 11am-3pm

Movie Night: Eames Short Films
with introduction by Llisa Demetrios
February 12, 6:30-9pm

Group/School Tour
Call PAC to book!

Lineage: Selections from CCA Furniture Department 2014 on exhibit in Community Gallery
January 17-March 8, 2015

Toys are not really as innocent as they look. Toys and games are the preludes to serious ideas.
Charles Eames

Program Partner:
Spaulding McCullough & Tansil LLP

Sponsors:

PETALUMA ARTS CENTER
230 Lakeville Street, Petaluma
707-762-5600
Hours 11:00–5:00 pm
(Closed Tues & Wed)
www.petalumaartscenter.org
Parking lot entrance is from East Washington across from CVS.

All images courtesy Eames Office. © Eames Office, LLC 2014